

GOLF TOURNAMENT 2016 SUPPORTS MILAGRO HOUSE

11.17.2014

Murry Communities, Ltd, the parent company Murry which encompasses New Home Construction, Residential and Commercial Rental Properties, Murry Management Company as well as the Crossgates Golf Club, recently held its 2016 Murry Golf Outing which raised over $19,000 for the Milagro House. The company has raised almost $35,000 for the organization over the past two years.

President and CEO of Murry Communities, Ltd, Bill Murry presented Gail Rittenhouse, Executive Director of Milagro House (www.milagrohouse.org), with the proceeds. The company hosted 90 golfers comprised of vendors, clients, employees and friends for the one-day event.

“We have been building homes for 86 years and hosting this golf tournament for at least the last four decades. We thought Milagro House, committed to providing housing for homeless women and children, to be a natural fit as the benefactor for the past few years,” said Murry.

Murry Communities, Ltd, Lancaster County’s builder where Living Places and Working Spaces come together, is the third generation company that continues to build lasting relationships with each client. The communities include residential with Crossgates Residences of Winding Creek and Sawgrass nestled along the sprawling Crossgates Golf Course; Woods Edge surrounded by farm land, minutes from Lancaster’s main access roads and the city center; Eagle Ridge, delivering scenic beauty just north of Lancaster in Warwick Township; and Mondamin Farm, nestled next to the Conestoga River in Manheim Township.
